

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES
PERFORMANCE BASED CONTRACTING

Pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. 19-11-267 et. seq., the selected contractor shall comply with performance-based standards. Following are the performance-based standards that will be a part of the contract and with which the contractor must comply for acceptable performance to occur under the contract.

- I. The contractor must comply with all statutes, regulations, codes, ordinances, and licensure or certification requirements applicable to the contractor or to the contractor's agents and employees and to the subject matter of the contract. Failure to comply shall be deemed unacceptable performance.
- II. Except as otherwise required by law, the contractor agrees to hold the contracting Division/Office harmless and to indemnify the contracting Division/Office for any additional costs of alternatively accomplishing the goals of the contract, as well as any liability, including liability for costs or fees, which the contracting Division/Office may sustain as a result of the contractor's performance or lack of performance.
- III. During the term of the contract, the division/office will complete sufficient performance evaluation(s) to determine if the contractor's performance is acceptable. The damages set forth below are not exclusive and shall in no way exclude or limit any remedies available at law or in equity.
- IV. The State shall have the right to modify, add, or delete Performance Standards throughout the term of the contract, should the State determine it is in its best interest to do so. Any changes or additions to performance standards will be made in good faith following acceptable industry standards and may include the input of the vendor so as to establish standards that are reasonably achievable.
- V. The contract program deliverables and performance indicators to be performed by the contractor are:

Scope of Work A. The Contractor must work with the Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS) to perform duties such as are generally performed by an attorney to offer legal representation for children in foster care in connection with legal actions, including but not limited to Fair Hearings involving Medicaid or Social Security; administrative hearings to represent the child in care as an alleged offender of child maltreatment; Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS) Applications; wrongful death; medical malpractice; probate and estate matters; contract issues; and school matters for DCFS cases. B. The Contractor must work with DCFS on referrals of children previously in foster care who left DHS custody via a guardianship or permanent custody arrangement but whose guardian or custodian now wishes to adopt the child. The Contractor shall review the referral and determine if adoption is likely to be granted under the circumstances. If there is likelihood of success in finalizing an adoption for the guardian or custodian, DCFS will request that the Contractor proceed with initiating the adoption proceedings on the guardian or custodian's behalf. C. The Contractor shall advocate for recoupment of expenses of litigation and request the court to make an award for separate attorney fees or expenses, which would offset costs billed to the DCFS. Contractor obligation begins upon receipt of the referral and ends with case closure. However, the parties may agree from time to time to variation in the services to be performed or in terms of the agreement, or changes in time of payment. These may be agreed upon between the parties in writing.	Acceptable performance is defined as one hundred percent (100%) compliance with all service criteria and standards for acceptable performance throughout the contract term as determined by DHS.	1st Incident: A Corrective Action Plan (CAP) acceptable to DHS shall be due to DHS within ten (10) business days of the request. 2nd incident: A five percent (5%) penalty will be assessed in the following months' payment to the provider for each thirty (30) day period the Vendor is not in full compliance with all requirements of the contract.
