1	months ago since we received this information.	1	MR. TOLLETTE: Right. I'm just really mad
2	Maybe June.	2	at the Health Department right now. I mean
3	MR. HEIMER: How much is it to do the	3	you know. They're going to put the public out
4	testing at if you go to Lowe's and you buy the	4	there because we're not doing it anymore.
5	kit?	5	MR. WHATLEY: When the Department of Health
6		6	was doing the testing and if you found a well
	MS. RUSS: I'm not sure. I don't think they
7	were pretty they weren't	7	that was out of compliance, what was the
8	MS. DEBUSK: Aren't they free?	8	procedure from that point once they found that it
9	MS. RUSS: No. They're not free. You have	9	was out of compliance? Did have was there
10	to pay for them. Not much. I think about	10	a certain amount of time that the
11	between $14 and $30, maybe?	11	MS. RUSS: Yes. They would have had
12	MR. HEIMER: Okay. So not a huge burden if	12	MR. WHATLEY: foster parent had?
13	we had if there was an allowance for people to	13	MS. RUSS: time to correct the issue and
14	do their own tests?	14	in the meantime would have put in a safety fail
15	MS. RUSS: Our thing is who is going to read	15	like
16	those?	16	MS. DOHERTY: Bottled water.
17	(UNKNOWN SPEAKER): Right.	17	MS. RUSS: saying they have to purchase
18	MS. MASSEY-FOTI: Didn't the oh what is	18	bottled water for drinking and cooking and
19	it? It's the rural cooperative extension service	19	cleaning and such. So but that was kind of
20	or something like that, don't they do testing of	20	the plan at the time.
21	wells?	21	MS. JEFFREY: And they're everywhere from
22	MS. RUSS: Of that I'm not sure.	22	$18 to $40, I guess depending on.
23	MS. MASSEY-FOTI: At least in rural	23	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: So do you propose to
24	communities. They once did. They may not any	24	propose just to stay with what you guys are doing
25	longer.	25	currently doing until we get this ironed out?
	Page 58		Page 60
1	MR. TOLLETTE: You know Mr. Chairman,	1	Is that you're asking for our
2	because I really am paranoid over this thing on	2	MS. JEFFREY: I guess so because we would
3	water, if you haven't gone through that kind of	3	we don't we definitely don't want to put any,
4	experience, you don't know how bad it can get. I	4	you know, children out, but we also want them to
5	think the attorney general needs to look at this	5	have safe water. So
6	in terms of what are the liabilities for us.	6	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: Sounds to me like that's
7	What are the liabilities for the facilities if	7	the only other option we have
8	they don't have a good test, then who is going to	8	MS. JEFFREY: Uh-huh.
9	pay for that? Who is going to be sued? Who is	9	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: is to do the over the
10	going to be, you know, put out to pasture? I	10	counter.
11	mean maybe I'm making it too big. But if you get	11	MS. RUSS: They could utilize over the
12	bad tests, who monitors the tests? And how do	12	counter testing for water?
13	you know the Home Depot test really works to a	13	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: Until we can come up with a
14	health standard?	14	better plan.
15	MS. FARRIS: Yeah. The AG's office doesn't	15	MS. RUSS: Okay.
16	really investigate things like that. And the	16	MR. TOLLETTE: And then we might have to
17	facilities	17	take bottled water for drinking and everything
18	MR. TOLLETTE: Okay.	18	else, washing and cleaning and bathing, you know,
19	MS. FARRIS: would have they should	19	to all the providers.
20	have I would think their own insurance	20	MR. WHATLEY: But that's the responsibility
21	MR. TOLLETTE: Okay.	21	of the foster parent or the residential facility.
22	MS. FARRIS: that would take care of that	22	MR. TOLLETTE: Yeah.
23	if they're sued. And as far as the Board goes,	23	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: For their license. Yeah.
24	you all have immunity as far as long as you	23	MR. WHATLEY: Right.
24
24	don't act with malice.	25	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: I think so.

2	We're not wanting to do away with our license.	2	MR. WHATLEY: Yeah.
3	We need to keep the license because there is	3	MS. MASSEY-FOTI: I think then the question
4	going to be a point in time that we're going to	4	comes for him or for any of them, they haven't
5	utilize transitional, but it could be after	5	used the license; you terminate the license.
6	has many times been after a 12-month period	6	What's the process then if six months later, they
7	and then, you know, within 18 months	7	need that license again? Is it the whole lengthy
8	MS. RUSS: So	8	to redo? I mean, what
9	MR. WHATLEY: or 24 months or	9	MS. RUSS: Yeah, that was my question. I
10	MS. RUSS: So as far as	10	think she said they would have to reapply.
11	MR. WHATLEY: whatever, it's needed	11	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: But I mean, I think if you

13	MS. RUSS: So as far as licensing, if you	13	recertification on it
14	have the license that has the multiple licenses	14	MS. FARRIS: No. My understanding of the
15	on that license and you're utilizing one of those	15	issue was only if the statute applies to just
16	licenses one or two I have not made any	16	PRTFs or if it applies to all licenses.

9	MS. FARRIS: Yeah. The statute reads that	9	So but I'll ask I'll talk to her. I know
10	it would be license dependent. So for instance	10	what you're saying, and we didn't want places to
11	so if you've got a license, or more than one,	11	hold beds and never use them and then someone
12	and you haven't used one of them in over 12	12	else because there's just so many beds that
13	months, that one would have to be terminated, but	13	can be had and then someone else can't have beds
14	the rest would not.	14	was the intent. These things aren't based on

2	weren't doing anything, but they weren't going to	2	MR. WHATLEY: place.
3	lose their license. And once they got ready to	3	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: Yes.
4	start back up, they were going to somehow come	4	MR. WHATLEY: Trinity.
5	back to us and say we're ready to start our	5	MS. FARRIS: Y'all may want to consider
6	program. But they never lost a license. It was	6	trying to change that.
7	inactive. Am I	7	MR. WHATLEY: Right.
8	MS. DOHERTY: I think that was quite a while	8	MS. FARRIS: Because, I mean, it's written
9	ago. That's been since the	9	as it states, and it may not reflect the intent.
10	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: We used to do that and then	10	I don't know.
11	they passed this	11	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: So you said y'all have
12	MS. DOHERTY: Yeah.	12	already got your packets together?
13	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: law.	13	MS. DOHERTY: Well, no. We're working. I
14	MS. RUSS: Yeah.	14	know they were working on some. But I'll go back
15	MR. TOLLETTE: Okay.	15	up and talk to her and I'll also put you in touch
16	MS. RUSS: Before this law. Yeah.	16	with her too.
17	MS. DOHERTY: Yeah.	17	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: Okay.
18	MR. TOLLETTE: So you can't do that anymore?	18	MS. DOHERTY: I'll explain to her what
19	MS. RUSS: Huh-huh. No.	19	happened today.
20	MS. DOHERTY: Huh-huh.	20	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: I'd appreciate it.
21	MR. TOLLETTE: That would be in my mind	21	MS. DOHERTY: Uh-huh.
22	that would be a nice middle place to be.	22	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: And any way we can help
23	MS. DOHERTY: Not really, because again then	23	let us know.
24	it swoops in everything, and you can hold beds.	24	MS. RUSS: So clarification for the
25	MR. TOLLETTE: Oh.	25	licensing unit. Even if one agency has multiple
	Page 74		Page 76
1	MS. RUSS: And we had	1	licenses, whatever license that has been inactive
2	MR. WHATLEY: That's the issue.	2	for one year, that license shall be terminated
3	MS. LITZSEY: And we had some agencies that	3	the one that's
4	were inactive for over five years.	4	MS. FARRIS: That is how I read it.
5	MR. WHATLEY: And that was the issue to	5	MS. RUSS: Okay.
6	begin with.	6	MS. FARRIS: Practically, that may not work.
7	CHAIR ANDY ALTOM: Oh yeah. That was	7	I don't know. I'm just reading the statute as
8	MS. MASSEY-FOTI: And that was the goal;	8	it's written.
9	right?	9	MS. RUSS: Okay.
10	MS. DOHERTY: Yeah.	10	MS. DOHERTY: You know, and quite frankly,
11	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: I specifically remember	11	even what we're putting together now, we don't
12	that meeting and after the meeting I remember	12	know how that's going to go because we're going
13	getting an email from Mischa saying, "Hey, I need	13	to have a new governor. So it's kind of like
14	you to read over this and see what " I think	14	we're putting stuff together but might have to
15	it was pretty much just seeing do you agree with	15	redo it again after that happens.
16	because I think I voiced my opinion that it's	16	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: Yeah.
17	horrible that you have providers out there that	17	MS. DOHERTY: So we don't know.
18		18	MR. WHATLEY: So wait a minute. Are we
19	MS. DOHERTY: Or think they have	19	telling license to start, like, now and if there
20	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: basically taking up bed	20	is an agency with multiple licenses to render
21	need, but they're not using it. And so	21	that particular license after 12 months invalid?
22	MR. WHATLEY: If I remember it correctly	22	MS. DOHERTY: She's saying it's not, like,
23	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: you're punishing the	23	starting now, it's, like, we should have already
24	MR. WHATLEY: it all stemmed primarily	24	started they should have already been doing

1	MS. FARRIS: For about the past year.	1	trying to even enact how many facilities we've
2	MS. DOHERTY: Yeah.	2	got out there that are similar to what mine is
3	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: They did that on the	3	that would have multiple licenses. And then all
4	MR. WHATLEY: Again, I don't think that's	4	of a sudden, there's one of those or more than
5	right	5	one of those that have not been active in over a
6	MS. FARRIS: But then says the Board shall	6	year. And I just think we're I think we need
7	terminate	7	to be very careful with it, especially with the
8	MR. WHATLEY: because that was not the	8	intent on that of how that was written whenever
9	intent	9	that was. It had to do with psychiatric and it
10	MS. MASSEY-FOTI: Not us.	10	had to do with beds. It didn't have anything to
11	MS. DOHERTY: of the Board. Well yeah,	11	do with these type licenses that we're talking
12	but you	12	about. So I just I don't want us to be too
13	MR. WHATLEY: at all.	13	hasty in saying okay, as of today, we're going to
14	MS. DOHERTY: bring them into the Board.	14	go, and this is what we're telling licensing to

16	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: And we did do it on foste	-	CHAIRMAN ALTOM: My understanding is we
17	care and some of those inactive licenses that we	17	can't tell licensing not to do it because they
18	were technically they were classified as	18	the law says that we will close it. Now we can
19	inactive and those no longer were considered	19	tell licensing, come up with an alternative for
20	inactive and those no longer were considered inactive. They were terminated.	20	re-licensure of closed facilities to where it's
20	MS. DOHERTY: It seems to me like that	20	more streamlined and maybe they can come back to

2	the whole everything again. There's lessor as	2	sorts of things when you're talking about intent,
3	long as they decide to reopen within two years.	3	but I'm going back to the intent
4	I mean, it just seems like maybe that something	4	MS. FARRIS: The intent doesn't matter.
5	like that would be more fitting to, like, start	5	MR. WHATLEY: because
6	the whole process over again with a if you had	6	MS. FARRIS: If it's I mean if the
